

Eye refractions are typically not covered by medical insurance, including Medicare, Medigap policies, and Medicaid. At the patient's request, we will be glad to furnish this service as part of the patient's financial responsibility.

